

Family Friendly Policies: An Apparatus for Business Resilience and Continuity

Date: 29 October 2020
Time: 1000-1130 hrs

Knowledge
Partner & Co-host

unicef
for every child

Time	Agenda Items
1000-1005	Welcome and Session Context Setting Moderator- Global or regional team
1005-1015	Speakers Introduction
1015-1115	Magic Roundtable Deliberation Moderator: Dr Chemba Raghavan Chief/Officer in Charge, Early Childhood Development, UNICEF Speakers: Tejas Sampat Senior Director, Corporate Responsibility & Offshore Sustainability, PVH Inc Ranjeeb Sarma Head of Compliance, CSR and Plan A India - Marks & Spencer Niraj Lal Head CSR, Arvind Mills Srihari Balakrishnan President, KG Fabrics Dinesh Mehra General Manager, Richa Global Ines Kämpfer Executive Director, CCR CSR Kriti Tula Founder, Doodlage
1115-1130	Q&A and Closing Remark

Session Objectives

Initiate a discourse around the importance of implementing FFPs or work-life policies across the Apparel and Textile value chain

- ⦿ A deep dive into FFP's and the need for it to make business sustainable.
- ⦿ Understand private sector experience in the implementation of family-friendly or work-life policies; challenges and successes.
- ⦿ Determine on best practices on FFPs or work-life policies in the Apparel & Textile industry and examine their contribution to making businesses resilient.
- ⦿ Explore legislative frameworks, policies, government interventions and role & responsibilities of key stakeholders in creating an enabling environment to implement FFPs.

Register Now
www.sustainabilitystandards.in